4. Name of the register	Register for career monitoring surveys at Finland's universities for graduates with a master's degree or discontinued bachelor's degree and for graduates with a doctor's degree.
5. Purpose of processing personal data and legal grounds for processing	The purpose of career monitoring surveys is to monitor the early career stages of university graduates and their situation in the labour market (five years for higher university degree graduates or discontinued bachelor's degree programme graduates, for example, nursery school teachers and pharmacists, and three years for doctors) and utilise the monitoring information in research, highlighting the early career stages of people with an academic education, the development of higher education and student guidance, as well as for offering information for potential students, current students and graduates for planning their own studies and career. In the career monitoring survey, this information is produced and used without identification information about the participants. This information is university-specific, for cooperation between the universities, with cooperation partners and generally for research through the Finnish Social Science Data Archive (FSD). Career monitoring surveys are carried out using both a paper form and an electronic form. The electronic response form is made available through the Arvo information service of the Finnish National Agency for Education, maintained and developed by CSC – IT Center for Science. The collection of research data using the paper form and the compilation of data are coordinated by Tampere University's Research Stats Service TUPA. TUPA also incorporates the survey responses from all the participating universities into a nationwide register.
