

Name of the course: Strengthen Your English Skills

Code: KENG5005

Credits: 3 ECTS

Learning outcomes:

Aim: A2.3–B1.2

After completing the course, students are expected to be able to:

1. actively participate in discussions
2. communicate to different audiences both in academic and in professional working contexts
3. deliver a professional presentation in English in groups and individually
4. understand professional and academic texts
5. write coherent and reader-friendly texts.

Content:

The course aims to review learners' knowledge of English as well as develop learner's English proficiency level towards CEFR B1.2. This is the course for those who need to revise their English skills and further build them in for use in university studies (e.g., mandatory courses) or in professional life. The course offers the opportunity to practise more in all four language skills in English (reading, writing, listening, speaking) to ensure that students become independent users of English.

Implementation methods:

This course is taught online. It is equivalent to 30 teaching hours and 81 hours student work in total.

Study and assessment methods:

Mandatory class attendance, active participation and completion of core tasks.

Grading scale: Pass/Fail

Prerequisites: Pre-intermediate (A2.2 or A2.3) or equivalent level of English

Languages: English

Learning materials: Learning materials will be provided by the teacher.